- Community Facilities Direct Loan & Grant Program. The Community Facilities Direct Loan & Grant Program provides year-round funding to help rural areas develop essential facilities that support community services. Eligible applicants include public bodies, community-based nonprofits, and federally recognized tribes, with projects focused on rural areas with populations under 20,000. Funding can be used for constructing, purchasing, or improving facilities like healthcare centers, public safety buildings, educational services, and local food systems. Grants are prioritized for small, low-income communities and are awarded on a graduated scale, with up to 75% of eligible costs covered for the neediest communities. Applicants must demonstrate financial need, substantial community support, and complete an environmental review to qualify.

- Cultivate Small Business. Santander's Cultivate Small Business program is a free, 12-week virtual training initiative designed to support early-stage food entrepreneurs, with a focus on underserved founders in low- to moderate-income communities. Participants complete a food-focused, MBA-style curriculum led by Babson College professors and gain access to mentorship, peer networks, and capital grants. All program graduates receive a $2,500 grant, with select exemplary participants eligible for additional awards of up to $20,000. Applications for the Spring cohort are due by February 2, 2026.

- The David Bohnett Foundation. The David Bohnett Foundation awards grants to socially active businesses that foster acceptance, develop future leaders, and connect communities through technology. Active funding opportunities for businesses are available on the foundation's grants page.
- Etsy Emergency Relief Fund. If you're an Etsy business owner, you may qualify to apply for relief funding courtesy of a partnership with CERF+, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping artists prepare for and recover from emergencies and disasters. The partnership was established in 2017, and both companies continue to provide up to $2,500 in funding through the grant program. To apply, you must have been a registered Etsy business for at least one year and have been affected by a natural disaster. This grant opportunity is rolling.

- Female Founders Fund. The VC firm Female Founders Fund aims to invest in up-and-coming women-owned and women-run startups. Since 2014, the Female Founders Fund has put money toward "category-defining female leaders with a strong community to fuel their success," with investments in B2B, consumer, healthcare, fintech, and social companies. Female founders can pitch their business via their website.

- Fearless Fund. Fearless Fund, a venture capital firm that actively invests in businesses led by women of color across the United States.

Concentrating on early-stage investments in various industries, the fund looks for companies at the pre-seed, seed, or series A financing stages, offering up to $3 million in exchange for a minimum equity stake of 10%. Those who qualify can apply to pitch; applications are reviewed on a month-to-month basis.

- Hey Helen Grant. The Hey Helen Grant offers $10,000 in unrestricted funding to support women and nonbinary entrepreneurs building mission-driven, for-profit businesses in the U.S. Eligible applicants must be 100% women-owned, generate less than $1 million in annual revenue, and have a U.S.-based business bank account. Nonprofits are not eligible, and applicants must be at least 18 years old and legal U.S. residents. Applications are due by April 30, 2026, at 11:59 p.m. EDT.

- Hivers and Strivers Investment Program. As an angel investment group, Hivers and Strivers works to provide capital to qualifying businesses. Specifically, the investment group funds projects submitted by veteran-owned and veteran-led businesses. Funding opportunities range from $250,000 to $1 million. Those who qualify can apply for funding for a business idea on a rolling basis, but businesses reliant on government contracts are not eligible to apply.

- IFundWomen Universal Grant Application. This is a resource for female entrepreneurs seeking grants. Through partnerships with brands like Visa, Caress, and Comcast, IFundWomen has deployed over $170 million in grants to entrepreneurs. Applicants gain priority access to funding opportunities and resources within the IFundWomen community.
- The Kitty Fund. The Kitty Fund — named for Catherine “Kitty” Abrams Tadlock Webster, mother of Founder’s First CEO Kim Folsom — will award a total of $20,000 to 20 small business owners who identify as mothers through the Kitty Fund Mompreneur Business Grant. Eligible businesses must be based in the U.S., have annual revenues under $5M, and employ between 2 and 50 people. Pre-registration is open now, and the full application will open in March 2026.

- Olga Loizon Memorial Foundation. The Olga Loizon Memorial Foundation offers grants of up to $10,000 to aspiring women entrepreneurs in Michigan who embody the passion and vision of Olga Loizon, the founder of metro Detroit's Olga's Kitchen. Applicants must have a business located in Michigan and demonstrate financial need through a personal statement; a formal business plan is also required. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.
- Patagonia Corporate Grant Program. Patagonia's corporate grant program offers between $10,000 and $20,000 of funding to nonprofits with missions to protect and preserve the environment. Though grants are awarded by invitation only, Patagonia accepts recommendations for organizations that meet program criteria.

- PEDIGREE Foundation Disaster Relief Grant. The PEDIGREE Foundation Disaster Relief Grant provides up to $5,000 to nonprofit animal welfare organizations responding to state- or FEMA-declared disasters. Eligible 501(c)(3) organizations include those directly affected by a disaster as well as those assisting impacted areas through animal rescue, intake, medical care, or temporary sheltering. Grant funds may be used for urgent needs such as veterinary treatment, pet food and supplies, transportation, temporary boarding, and shelter cleanup or repairs. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

- Regenerative Social Finance (RSF). RSF offers term loans, lines of credit, and customized financing options for mission-driven businesses and nonprofits focused on regeneration. Eligible industries include (but are not limited to) food and agriculture, education, climate and energy, and community impact.
- Walmart Spark Good Local Grants. The Walmart Spark Good Local Grants program, offered by Walmart and Sam's Club, provides grants ranging from $250 to $5,000 to organizations addressing the unique needs of local communities. Tax ID status determines eligibility, with 501(c)(3) charities, public entities, and educational institutions qualifying. All organizations must be Deed-verified and have a Spark Good account to apply. Applications for cycle one are open through April 15, 2026.

- Wells Fargo Grant. Wells Fargo and the Wells Fargo Foundation offer grants to nonprofit organizations addressing financial health, housing affordability, small business growth, and sustainability. To qualify, organizations must hold 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status (or equivalent for public schools, tribal entities, or governmental agencies), demonstrate fiscal stability, and address critical community needs centered around diversity, equity, and innovation. Applications are by invitation only, though eligible nonprofits may submit a grant interest form for consideration. However, Wells Fargo does not fund individuals, for-profit entities, political groups, or travel-based initiatives.

- The Wish Local Empowerment Program. This program, brought to you by the e-commerce brand Wish, assists Black-owned small businesses by dedicating a $2 million fund to support approximately 4,000 Wish Local partners. Recipients can receive financial assistance ranging from $500 to $2,000, with flexibility in fund allocation. Eligible businesses must meet certain criteria, such as having a Black-owned business with 20 or fewer employees and an average annual revenue under $1 million. Successful applicants must also join Wish Local, gaining access to its consumer base through various partnership opportunities.
- Agricultural Justice Project, a program offering free resources and guidance for owners of farms and food businesses.

 In-Kind Donation Opportunity for Nonprofits

Sharing this in case it helps an organization here:

U-Haul Community Relations In-Kind Donations

Provides in-kind support to eligible nonprofits through equipment, storage, and merchandise donations.

✅ Focus areas include:

- Food
- Clothing
- Shelter
- Basic human needs
- Military and veteran support tied to basic needs

✅ Who it's for:

- 501(c)(3) charitable organizations
- Organizations established for at least three years
- No requests from individuals

📍 Service area / geography:

- Broad U.S. reach through U-Haul locations

- Requests should identify the specific U-Haul location, city, and state connected to the need

Deadline / timing:

- Submit several weeks before the event or need
- Processing may take up to eight weeks during high-volume periods

Good to know:

- This is not a cash grant
- Requests are reviewed case-by-case
- Best fit for nonprofits needing moving, storage, equipment, or merchandise support
- Approved nonprofits are eligible for in-kind assistance toward the cost of an equipment rental at a U-Haul-owned and -operated center once every 52 weeks
